A Bill in Support of Oakland Kicks Asthma

Authored by Allen Zheng and Eddie Nahabet
Sponsored by Senator Eddie Nahabet

- WHEREAS, Oakland is the largest city in the Alameda County with a large proportion of children living in poverty; and
- WHEREAS, Alameda County has notoriously poor air quality, inadequate housing, and low access to care; and
- WHEREAS, these problems in conjunction with others contribute to Oakland's high rates of asthma and the California Department of Health Services identified Alameda County as having the second highest rate of asthma hospitalizations for children and early teens among all counties in the state; and
- WHEREAS, within Alameda County the highest rates are found in Oakland; and
- WHEREAS, Oakland Kicks Asthma is an organization which employs an innovative school-based asthma education curriculum designed to help elementary school children manage their asthma so they spend more time in the classroom and less time in the emergency room; and
- WHEREAS, Oakland Kicks Asthma's goal is to provide their curriculum (Open Airways for Schools) to elementary schools within their target area, the East Bay; and
- WHEREAS, Oakland Kicks Asthma utilizes bi-lingual and culturally sensitive materials which enable them to reach a broad spectrum of children and their families; and
- WHEREAS, Oakland Kicks Asthma is an intervention program of the American Lung Association of the East Bay for indigent youth with asthma, which provides training for college students to be able to teach the curriculum; and
- WHEREAS, Oakland Kicks Asthma works closely with partners from the University of California Berkeley School of Public Health, Oakland Unified School District, and Children's Hospital Oakland; and
- WHEREAS, In the past year Oakland Kicks Asthma has outreached to over 15 elementary schools in the Bay Area and has gained approval and sponsorship of Dr. Ira Tager, Professor of Epidemiology under UC Berkeley's Department of Public Health; and

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that Oakland Kicks Asthma be recognized as a first-year Student Initiated Service Group.

A Bill In Support of Dil Se

---

Authored by Aroon Vijaykar, Parth Bhatt and Senator Meghana Dhar
Sponsored by Senator Meghana Dhar

WHEREAS, the ASUC exists to serve the need of students, and one way to fulfill this duty is by providing sponsorship for student organizations; and

WHEREAS, Dil Se is UC Berkeley's only South Asian a capella team and was founded in the Spring of 2004 by UCB students who wished to combined the melody-based raagas of Indian music with the depth and harmony that drive Western music; and

WHEREAS, Dil Se is nationally known and recognized, after competing and placing second in the largest South Asian a capella competition, Anahat, 3 times in a row; and

WHEREAS, this past year, Dil Se placed first at Anahat and will be competing in more national acapella competitions that require travelling and registration fees; and

WHEREAS, Dil Se routinely performs on campus, at University events, and shows across California; and

WHEREAS, in the past, all members have had to pay for their own travel, costumes, and recording; and

WHEREAS, Dil Se's next event is UC Berkeley's national competition, Anahat, and they require funding for costumes and props;

WHEREAS, the budget is as follows:

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the ASUC recognize Dil Se as a first year ASUC Student Activity Group (SAG); and

LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED, that the ASUC shall allocate $150 (one hundred fifty dollars) from the Senate Contingency fund to sponsor Dil Se and their competition at UC Berkeley's Anahat

A Bill in Support of Improving ASUC Budget Transparency and Communication

Authored By: Christina Oatfield and others

Sponsored By: Senators Christina Oatfield, Lisa Tran, Lyell Sakaue and Stephanie Yang

WHEREAS, Transparency is vital to the improvement of services and integrity of operations in any government, non-profit, educational or business organization.

THEREFORE IT BE RESOLVED THAT, the ASUC Senate request that the ASUC Auxiliary provide all ASUC officials with quarterly budget reports, and at least an annual budget report that includes:

- detailed operational expenses, which include line items more specific than “program supplies,” “general supplies,” and “miscellaneous expenses”
- a thorough breakdown of all the revenue from the ASUC’s commercial services agreements, including the Bears’s Lair, MLK and ASUC Mall

THEREFORE IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED THAT, The ASUC will not support plans to have a Panda Express on the UC Berkeley campus until it is provided with detailed ASUC Auxiliary Budgets, in order to better understand the financial situation of the ASUC and how Panda Express would affect it. In the meantime, the Senate shall support the Store Operations Board in finding alternative food vendors that are both environmentally and financially sustainable for Lower Sproul.

A Bill in Support of Berkeley Art Museum/ Pacific Film Archive Student Committee

Authored by Jessica Tiao and Senator Sheila Chen

Sponsored by Senator Sheila Chen

WHEREAS, the BAM/PFA Student Committee connects the student body to the cultural resources offered by the Berkeley Art Museum and the Pacific Film Archives; and

WHEREAS, the BAM/PFA Student Committee creates student-specific spaces that cultivates interests in the arts and film, inspiring dialogue amongst students; and

WHEREAS, this organization produces events that connect students with current art exhibitions, new media, the Bay Area art professional community and the on-campus creative community; and

WHEREAS, this committee is comprised of a Museum staff advisor and 16 undergraduates of every year from a diverse collection of majors (including Neurobiology, Economics, Mass Communications, History of Art, Architecture, Spanish, and Business); and

WHEREAS, their members organize 6 events a year: (2) exhibit opening parties, an arts fest, special film screening, career forum, interactive social with art, and the foundation of a film community attracting 350 students for smaller events to over 700 for larger venues; and

WHEREAS, the student group has increased the Berkeley Art Museum's attendance by 200%; and

WHEREAS, the Student Committee has encouraged first visits to the Museum, provided a way for students to meet face to face with Bay Area professionals, brought artists to speak to students, exposed students to the Pacific Film Archive and stimulated interest in the unconventionality of Cal's own Museum and Film Archive and will do so for more futures in the coming years; and

WHEREAS, the Committee has never asked for any ASUC funding for previous service events; and

WHEREAS, the Committee faced a last-minute budget cut from the Museum, working with $4150 less than planned; and

WHEREAS, the budget for the BAM/PFA Student Committee is as follows,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the ASUC recognizes BAM/PFA Student Committee as a first-year Student-Initiated Service Group (SISG); and

LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED, that the ASUC Senate allocate $1,500 from the ASUC Senate Contingency Fund to the Student Committee for Berkeley Art Museum/Pacific Film Archive.

A Bill in Support of Caliber Magazine

Authored by Nick Anastasiades, Zarko Perovic and Senator Sheila Chen

Sponsored by Senator Sheila Chen, Senator Sarah Cho and Senator Tara Raffi

WHEREAS, Caliber Magazine is a full-color monthly magazine that is targeted towards students, staff and alumni of University of California at Berkeley as well as Berkeley residents; and

WHEREAS, Caliber Magazine focuses on bringing a balanced perspective on culture, society, sports, fashion, events, academics and miscellaneous topics concerned with UC Berkeley; and

WHEREAS, Caliber Magazine will seek to provide a general source of information that is available to students of all ages and academic concentrations; and

WHEREAS, Through the combination of graphic and textual elements Caliber Magazine hopes to create a magazine that best displays Berkeley student life as well as topics of interest and special events on our campus. Possible articles will be about: club activities, ASUC postings, opinion, reports, investigations, top ten lists, fashion advice and displays, musical/theatrical performance reviews, album reviews, book reviews, movie listings, food advice, shopping lists, club and restaurant reviews, class/course spotlights, dorm decorative articles, sexual advice and reports, full-blown features, jokes, college humor, and paper games; and

WHEREAS, Caliber is not a free magazine because a large amount of monetary support is needed to continuously produce monthly issues. The magazine will cost two dollars per issue, with certain discounts for retailers, student clubs, bulk orders, and university representatives in order to sustain the publication over time. However, the publication seeks ASUC support in getting this project started; and

WHEREAS, Caliber is a project created and planned for since the beginning of fall 2008 and even though the magazine hasn't been marketed on campus yet, there have already been 16 registered staff members; and

WHEREAS, Caliber is a very expensive project to start and maintain, mainly because of its full-color 48 page features. Below is an itemized budget required to develop and print the 1st issue:

ITEM	DESCRIPTION	PRICE
Printing: 1st issue	3000-4000 copies / 48 pages / full color 80# cover page / 60# text page	4,500 USD
Bar Code Registration	BIPAD number registration	350 USD

A Bill in Support of Replenishing the Public Service Fund

---

Authored by Senator Sheila Chen

Sponsored by Senator Sheila Chen and Senator Claudia Rodriguez

WHEREAS, SB 88 created the Public Service Fund in the spring of 2008; and

WHEREAS, the Public Service Fund is the only grant that provides funds for students who have repeatedly demonstrated interests and enthusiasm in seeking methods to fulfill the unmet needs of outside communities; and

WHEREAS, public service provides students with an opportunity to make a positive impact on the world outside of Cal; and

WHEREAS, there is a need for humanitarian and philanthropic efforts in our society; and

WHEREAS, these public service efforts may require expenditures for materials, travel costs, and/or housing in order for the successful execution of their endeavors; and

WHEREAS, undergraduate applicants can apply for up to $750 and graduate students can apply for up to $250; and

WHEREAS, the Public Service Fund was initially allocated $3,500 and replenished with $8,500 later on in the semester; and

WHEREAS, the Public Service Fund was introduced at the first Grants Workshop for the 2008-2009 academic year on October 8th; and

WHEREAS, the Public Service Fund has already processed 54 applications in the fall semester;

WHEREAS, the Public Service Fund currently has a deficit of $2,075 dollars

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the ASUC shall allocate $7,000 to the Public Service Fund from Carry Forward.

A Bill in Support of the 19th Annual Asian Pacific Islander Issues Conference:
FOCALIZE. Realize. Vocalize. Mobilize.

Authored by: Senator MJ. Flores

Sponsored by Senator(s) MJ. Flores, S. Yang, L. Tran, L. Sakaue, C. Rodriguez, O. Mairena, K. Shah, EVP Pasco, S. Cho,

- WHEREAS, every year API (Asian Pacific Islander) students from all areas of the campus and the community come together to bring underrepresented issues within our communities to the forefront; and
- WHEREAS, the purpose of the 19th Annual Asian Pacific Islander Issues Conference (APIICON) is to create awareness of issues and ethnic diversity, as well as create dialogue within and among the API communities; and
- WHEREAS, this year marks the 40th anniversary of the historic third world Liberation Front (twLF) Movement, which reminds us as students of color at Berkeley to remember what it means to have relevant education not only on campus, but also other college and university campuses throughout the nation; and
- WHEREAS, this year's APIICON 2009's theme, "FOCALIZE. Realize. Vocalize. Mobilize." is an attempt to re-evaluate the progress we have made, realize the current status of the community, and to assess what we still need to do and where we still need to go for the progression of our community; and
- WHEREAS, APIICON 2009 is entirely student-run and will be completely free for students on March 14, 2009 from 10am to 3pm at the Lipman Room in Barrows Hall; and
- WHEREAS, the conference would attempt to address the status of the contemporary Asian Pacific Islander community, the ever-changing multicultural landscape of America, and the most pressing, pertinent issues into light as a means of education, discussion, and action among our collective, unique communities; and
- WHEREAS, there will be a variety of workshops, entertainment, and amazing keynote speakers, one of whom will be Yuri Kochiyama, a Japanese-American civil rights activist who worked closely with Malcolm X; and
- WHEREAS, the conference has been a place for our communities to come together, learn, teach, and define our communities with discussion and dialogue; and

WHEREAS, the proposed budget for APIICON 2009 is; and

A Bill to Amend Title I of the ASUC Bylaws

Authored by Oscar Mairena

Sponsored by Senator Mairena, Hussain, Sakaue, Shah, L. Tran, Yang, Rodriguez

---

Whereas, The ASUC Constitution is the supreme governing body of this association; and

Whereas, Article IX Section 1.C of the ASUC Constitution states:

All financial appropriations or revenue reductions require a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Senate for approval; And

Whereas, per Title I Article 6.1 of the ASUC Bylaws, the ASUC Senate follows Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised; and

Whereas, Robert's Rules of Order only mandates for a simple majority when discussing bills, despite the financial allocation; and

Whereas, ASUC Constitution and Robert's Rules of order conflict in the procedure to pass amendments that include financial allocations; and

Whereas, The ASUC Constitution supersedes Robert's Rules of Order; and

Whereas, it has become dilatory to pass amendments at a simple majority but not have the bill itself pass; and

Whereas, Title I Article 6.4 of the ASUC Bylaws states:

6.4 Making Motions

1. The maker of a Motion shall have one (1) minute to obtain a second.
2. All amendments to a Main Motion must be germane to the topic of the Motion.
3. Any amendment to a Resolved clause that specifies a numerical financial amount must use Robert's Rules "Filling Blanks" procedure, from high to low.

Therefore be it Resolved, that Title I Article 6.4 of the ASUC Bylaws be amended to include the following text as italicized below:

6.4 Making Motions

1. The maker of a Motion shall have one (1) minute to obtain a second.
2. All amendments to a Main Motion must be germane to the topic of the Motion.
3. Any amendment to a Resolved clause that specifies a numerical financial amount must use Robert's Rules "Filling Blanks" procedure, from high to low.
4. Any amendment to a Resolved clause that specifies a numerical financial amount must be approved by 2/3 majority of the entire senate.

A Bill in Support of Bioengineering Honor Society

Authored by Kalpit Shah, Sandra Cohen, Philip Chung, and Senator T. Trần
Sponsored by Senator T. Trần

WHEREAS, the ASUC consistently supports a variety of academic, fellowship, and professional development initiatives, organizations, and thus interests; and

WHEREAS, the Bioengineering Honor Society (BioEHS) is an undergraduate honor society for students in the Department of Bioengineering; and

WHEREAS, BioEHS's mission is to nurture well-balanced students who study Bioengineering by actively engaging all candidates in academic, professional, personal development along with community service dedication; and

WHEREAS, BioEHS has in the two recent semesters increased its membership by 140% and significantly increased its breadth of services to its members and the greater Bioengineering and engineering community; for instance, its review sessions for Chem 1A, Chem 3A, Chem 3B receive over 200 student attendance and is now collaborating with the SLC to reinforce the sessions; and

WHEREAS, BioEHS continues to lead the engineering community toward progress in providing the opportunities for students to enhance themselves and learn the basics of extracurricular life; and

WHEREAS, BioEHS is an avid supporter and sponsor of Berkeley Engineers and Mentors (BEAM) and many other engineering community-wide youth outreach events; and

WHEREAS, BioEHS will benefit immensely by having an ASUC-sponsored account due to the ASUC's 503(c) non-profit status; moreover, the group needs to access the deposit and access funds from the Miscellaneous account along with reaping all the other benefits of ASUC support; and

WHEREAS, BioEHS was in a budget crisis in the Spring 2008 semester thus the group overlooked the spring budgeting application process; and

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the ASUC recognizes Bioengineering Honor Society as a 5th year SAG (student activity group) while no funding is requested as of now.

A Bill in Support of Mandala Hindi Fusion Dance Team of Berkeley

Authored by Nancy Tripathi, Senator T. Trần, Senator W. Smelko, Senator M. Dhar
Sponsored by Senator T. Trần, Senator W. Smelko, Senator E. Nahabet, Senator M. Dhar

WHEREAS, Mandala is a new competitive Hindi Fusion dance team at UC Berkeley with the purpose of promoting growth of dancers and choreographers through performances, workshops, and competitions; the group serves as an outlet for students who can blend and desire to learn different styles of dance and who share a common interest in Hindi film music; and

WHEREAS, Mandala's vision for the campus encompasses:

- A. Using the variety of the multicultural Hindi film to introduce many different styles of music and dance to create a unique expression of art and movement
- B. Representing UC Berkeley at local events and shows in addition to competing at regional and national Fusion competitions
- C. Using dance and music as a universal language that united and values diversity and cultural sensitivity

WHEREAS, Mandala is inclusive of all students and makes it a priority to train anyone interested in the particular style of dance, while promoting Hindi Fusion dance on campus; and

WHEREAS, Mandala's activities and infrastructural setup was completed in the fall of 2008; it's new in a sense that the organization became CLL-registered in recent weeks and thus necessitates funding to accelerate the group into its workshops for the community, shows in the local community, and participation this year in the national competition; and

WHEREAS, Mandala's operating budget for the spring 2009 semester, as of February 5, 2009, is as follows:

Flyers:	$30
Banner:	$50
Costumes/Props:	$400
Tables/Chairs:	$80
Total	$560

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the ASUC recognizes Mandala Hindi Fusion Dance Team at Berkeley as a 1st year SAG (student activity group); and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that $150 (one hundred fifty USD) shall be allocated from the Senate Contingency Fund to Mandala Hindi Fusion Dance Team at Berkeley.

A Bill in Support of Mathematics Undergraduate Student Association

Authored by Garen Karnikian and Senator T. Trần
Sponsored by Senator T. Trần, Senator W. Smelko, Senator E. Nahabet

WHEREAS, the ASUC consistently supports a variety of academic, fellowship, and professional development initiatives, organizations, and thus interests; and

WHEREAS, the Mathematics Undergraduate Student Association (MUSA) is the only student group which serves UC Berkeley's rather large undergraduate body studying mathematics (pure, applied, and all affiliates); and

WHEREAS, MUSA's programs and services to the students include: student-faculty exchanges, faculty awards, Pi Day Celebration, peer advising for undergraduates, resources bank, and study lounge areas; and

WHEREAS, MUSA's former leadership decided not to become ASUC sponsored due to stringent requirements; however, the new leadership is setting a different tone in management and organization structure which is compatible and enhanced by ASUC-sponsorship; and

WHEREAS, MUSA has for the past year been dependent on personal contributions and departmental support for the larger events requiring food; and

WHEREAS, MUSA's operating budget for the 08-09 year, as of February 10, 2009, is as follows:

- Cashbox	$85
- Tables and Chairs	$80
- Flyers, Brochures	$50
- Banner	$80
- Total	$295

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the ASUC recognizes Mathematics Undergraduate Student Association as a 1st year SAG (student activity group); and

A Bill in Support of Triple Helix

Authored by Alex Kaplan and Senator T. Trần
Sponsored by Senator T. Trần, Senator S. Chen, Senator W. Smelko, Senator Y. Zuo

WHEREAS, the ASUC consistently supports a variety of academic, fellowship, and professional development initiatives, organizations, publications, and thus interests; and

WHEREAS, the Triple Helix (TTH) is a 6th year PUB which ultimately serves as a student-run forum for discussion and interdisciplinary thought for science in society; and

WHEREAS, TTH brings together bright young journalists to produce the highest quality undergraduate journal with issues highlighting student voice regarding current scientific progresses, innovations, and its potential effects upon society as a whole; while most writers do it for pleasure, many from TTH have been invited to national conferences to present based on their work; and

WHEREAS, TTH has since last semester expanded vastly in size of editors, writers, and production staff with their recruiting mechanism of a DeCal; TTH leaders continue to push boundaries despite their financial burdens in order to truly achieve a more interdisciplinary publication and forum; and

WHEREAS, the economic downturn has left TTH in need of financial support as its usual sponsors have not replied back for the spring and the publication wishes to carry on its momentum gained from the previous semester; and

WHEREAS, TTH is distributed through free hard copies and electronic copies; and

WHEREAS, TTH's spring 2009 operating budget, as of February 9, 2009, is as follows:

Journal Publishing Costs
Printing Costs (1000 journals/semester)	$3,200
Shipping Costs	$150
Publicity
Fliers	$100

A Bill in Support Cal World Peace Buddhists

---

Authored by Gloria Mensah and Senator T. Trần
Sponsored by Senator T. Trần, President R. Winston

WHEREAS, the ASUC consistently supports a diverse climate of political, cultural, religious, and community solidarity and celebration; and

WHEREAS, Cal World Peace Buddhists (CalWPB) is currently a CLL-registered student group and was founded in 1999 by students who wished to introduce their peers to a compassionate and self-empowering view of Nichiren Buddhism; and

WHEREAS, CalWPB's mission is to promote peace in the community by developing Buddhist philosophy and carrying out dialogues with people, especially by introducing the teachings of Buddhism to students, faculty, and the community; and

WHEREAS, CalWPB proactively works to spread an understanding and awareness of philosophies of nonviolence to the student and faculty body politic; and

WHEREAS, since its humble inception, CalWPB has now organized and hosts the following events/activities: A Buddhist Perspective on Diversity, Gandhi, King, Ikeda: A Legacy of Building Peace (Transforming the Heart) and monthly meetings where members are taught how to practice Nichiren Buddhism; and

WHEREAS, CalWPB links its members to the International Buddhist Group entitled Soka Gakkai in order to further connect members to an international cultural and spiritual community, one in which Berkeley thrives vibrantly; and

WHEREAS, Cal WPB's operational budget for the 08-09 year (as members personally paid for publicity and supplies in the fall of 2008), as of February 8, 2009, is as follows:

Flyers, Pamphlets	$50
Books for members and continual use	$100
Total	$150

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the ASUC recognizes Cal World Peace Buddhists as a 1st year SAG (student activity group); and

A Bill in Support of the Southeast Asian Student Coalition - Summer Institute 2009

Authored by Laura Thammavong, Brian Pham, and Stephanie Yang

Sponsored by Senators Stephanie Yang, Lisa Tran, Lyell Sakaue, Tu Tran, Claudia Rodriquez, Yishi Zuo, Oscar Mairena, Mary June Flores, Kifah Shah, Sarah Cho, Sheila Chen

WHEREAS, The mission statement of the Southeast Asian Student Coalition (SASC) is to unite Southeast Asian communities, particularly those bounded by the historical context of the Viet Nam War, and to address the social injustices, the economic inequalities, and political under-representation that they face; and

WHEREAS, Because Southeast Asian students have been historically underrepresented in higher education, SASC Summer Institute strives to address this issue by introducing high school students to the higher education experience and connecting them to resources and information that will help them navigate through the college application process; and

WHEREAS, SASC Summer Institute is a one week program that will take place from June 23rd to June 28th, 2009; and

WHEREAS, Approximately 45 students from throughout California and out of state come to UC Berkeley to engage in workshops and teach-ins about higher education, cultural and political awareness, and historical and contemporary community issues; and

WHEREAS, “Issues” facing the Southeast Asian communities include, but are not limited to, underrepresentation in higher education that is, the criminalization and deportation of Cambodian and Vietnamese refugee communities, youth, gang, and domestic violence, inter- and intra-Ethnic funk, escalating incarceration rates, limited job-access, generational misunderstandings, Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and other health related problems; and

WHEREAS, SASC Summer Institute provides high school students with the opportunities to reexamine their family backgrounds, explore their his/her-story and culture, and connect their knowledge to their actions by being critical about the issues that still exist in their communities and offer them the tools to address and react to these “issues”; and

WHEREAS, Southeast Asian communities make up one-third of the Asian Pacific Islander population, they make up only less than 1% of college campuses across the nation, with their actual numbers not known due to un-comprehensive demographic data collection on behalf of universities; and

WHEREAS, SASC Summer Institute’s main objectives is to encourage high school youth to pursue higher education, promote self-empowerment through cultural awareness, create cross cultural coalitions, build networks between high school students, college students, parents, and community members to promote improved access to college education for Southeast Asian youth, and increase the number of Southeast Asian students on the UC Berkeley campus in the future; and

WHEREAS, SASC Summer Institute outreaches to high school students from diverse ethnic, regional, academic, socio-economic, gender, and family backgrounds as a way to create a safe space where students can share their unique experiences and expand their understanding of the Southeast Asian his/her-story, identity, and struggle; and

WHEREAS, SASC Summer Institute 2009 will mark the 8th consecutive year that Summer Institute has been around;

WHEREAS, the Southeast Asian Student Coalition is currently trying to put a database together of past SASC mentees to show how the program has impacted their lives;

WHEREAS, every summer, high number of past mentees volunteer a week of their summer to and help with the program;

WHEREAS, 11.4% of the Cambodian community holds a Bachelors Degree or higher
9.4% of the Laotian community holds a Bachelors Degree or higher 20.2% of the Vietnamese community holds a Bachelors Degree or higher compared to the U.S. National Average of 28.8%

WHEREAS, 31.8 % of the Cambodian community live in linguistic isolation
35.1% of the Hmong community lives in linguistic isolation
31.8% of the Laotian community lives in linguistic isolation
45% of the Vietnamese community lives in linguistic isolation

WHEREAS, at last check the average per capita income for the Cambodian community was at $10,215 for the Hmong community, $6,613
for the Laotian community, $11,454
and the Vietnamese community $15,385
while the National Average was at $21,587

WHEREAS, 29.3% of the Cambodian community
37.6% of the Hmong community
19.1% of the Laotian community, and
16% of the Vietnamese community is living below the Federal Poverty Level compared to the National average of 12.4%

WHEREAS, The budget for SASC Summer Institute is as follows:

Preparing for the Summer Institute - $2127.00

Mentor Training/ Curriculum Development $820.00

Mentors and volunteers must undergo training before the institute in order to be prepared to help facilitate and run workshops, coordinate the youth and serve as a resource and network for the youth throughout the week. The workshops will go over policies in working with youths, help the mentors and volunteers understand the full extent of the curriculums and brainstorm various methodologies in presenting and addressing the Southeast Asian issues pertaining to the importance of higher education for Southeast Asian youths.

Transportation: (gas reimbursements) 5 cars x $10.00 x 2 days = $100.00

Breakfast: 30 people x $2.00/each x 2 days = $120.00

Lunch: 30 people x $4.00/each x 2 days = $240.00

Dinner: 30 people x $6.00/each x 2 days = $360.00

Supplies $857.00

Nametags: 4 packs x $2.00/each = $8.00

Clipboards: 4 boards x $5.00/each = $20.00

Butcher paper: 2 rolls x $85.00/each (XPedx supplies) = $170.00

Tape: 5 rolls x $4.00/each = $20.00

Markers: 8 sets x $8.00/each = $64.00

Construction paper: 2 packs x $5.00/each = $10.00

Photocopies: $100.00

Stamps: 40 x $1.00 = $40.00

Envelopes: 2 packs x $5.00 = $10.00

Paint/ Art supplies: $100

Student Journals: $5 x 45 students = $225

Folders: $2 x 45 students = $90

Outreach $450.00

The Summer Institute attempts to bring together a diverse group of students mainly from the Bay Area and Central Valley in order to build community and obtain a wide array of opinions and personal experiences. Outreaching to various high schools takes time and efforts, and we hope to cover the costs of transportation for those involved in outreaching so it will not be a barrier to reaching a diverse group of students.

Copies: $150.00

Gas: $30.00/day x 10 days = $300.00

During the Summer Institute - $24164.00

Transportation $6300.00

Rental vans will be used to pick up the students from their hometown to UC Berkeley and back, as well as for transporting them throughout the Bay Area for educational curriculum and events.

Mini-vans: 7 vans x $120/each x 6 days = $5040.00

Gas: 7 vans x $30/day x 6 days = $1260.00

Housing $10125.00

In order for students to gain the full college experience and build a stronger community, students will stay in dormitory housing for all nights of their stay at UC Berkeley.

Dorms

$45/bed x 5 nights x 45 students and mentors = $10125.00

Parking $539.00

Parking is important when inviting guest speakers, family, community members and teachers to attend and contribute to the program and curriculum of the Summer Institute.

Mini-van parking: 7 vans x $7/day (on campus) x 6 days = $294.00

Parents and community members: 25 passes x $7/day = $175.00

Guest speakers: 10 passes x $7/day = $70.00

Food $3100.00

The food calculation is based on the cost of food from the dormitory (which is not included in housing) as well as grocery-prepared food.

(Includes students, mentors and program coordinators)

Breakfast: 50 people x $2.00/each x 6 days = $600.00

Lunch: 50 people x $4.00/each x 5 days = $1000.00

Dinner: 50 people x $6.00/each x 5 days = $1500.00

Community Banquet $1300.00

The community banquet will include caterers from the community, who will prepare traditional Southeast Asian cuisine for the event (up to 200 people will attend this event). The community banquet will be a chance for the community to see what the youth have gained and accomplished from being a part of the Summer Institute through various performances and works put together by the participating youths.

Food: $700.00

Venue: $400.00

Decorations and supplies: $50.00

Equipment: $150.00

Equipment Rental $300.00

The orientation equipments will be used on the first day of the event to introduce the students to the program and this will be done in on of the larger auditoriums with a few opening performances. The classroom equipment is used primarily for workshop curriculum such as slide shows and videos pertaining to the Southeast Asian history and culture.

T-Shirts $500.00

T-shirts will be given to student participants, community members, teachers, mentors, volunteers, program supporters and donors involved in the Summer Institute.

T-shirt designs and prints: $5.00 x 100 = $500.00

Curriculum/ Educational Funds $2000.00

Guest speakers are key to the event in bringing outside knowledge and different viewpoints to the Summer Institute. They are often members from the Southeast Asian American community, and they provide a source of inspiration for the youth. All of them are fairly honored with an equal amount of $200.00 each, which will go for the travel fees and time involved in the event.

Guest speakers/ performers: 10 speakers x $200.00 = $2000

TOTAL: $26291.00

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the ASUC recognizes the unique struggles, issues, and achievements of the Southeast Asian Refugee community; and

THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the ASUC recognizes the Southeast Asian Student Coalition's Summer Institute 2009 as an ASUC sponsored event; and

THEREFORE BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, That the ASUC Senate allocate $1500 (one thousand five hundred dollars) from the Senate Contingency Fund to the Southeast Asian Student Coalition Summer Institute 2009.
