Pacific Unity Event

Authored by: Senator MJ. Flores, S. Yang and Tavae Samuelu
Sponsored by Senator(s) MJ. Flores, S. Yang

WHEREAS, Pacific Islanders at CAL (PAC) is a 1st year SISG and it serves the needs of Pacific Islander students at UC: Berkeley through academic and social activities. PAC will focus on outreach to high school and transfer students in the Bay Area to increase Pacific Islander enrollment as well as provide academic assistance and support for current UC: Berkeley Pacific Islander students. PAC also works to increase the visibility of Pacific Islanders on campus; and

WHEREAS, PAC plans to outreach to Pacific Islander communities throughout the bay area and Central Valley. This would include high schools, community colleges, and Pacific Islander youth organizations; and

WHEREAS, the Pacific Islander community is largely underrepresented on campus. Issues of visibility arise from the aggregation of the Asian/Pacific Islander label. Being grouped with a community that appears so visible on campus causes the small numbers of Pacific Islanders to go ignored and unaddressed; and

WHEREAS, last year, PAC hosted "Contours of the Pacific," a culture show that was intended to redefine the boundaries within which Pacific Islanders have been confined. The goal was to provide Pacific Islander youth with a forum to showcase their talents, which in essence is a Pacific unifying event; and

WHEREAS, last year's "Contours of the Pacific" was allocated only $500 from Senate Contingency Fund, for an event that had over 200 attendees and participants; and

WHEREAS, this year, on April 11, 2009, PAC will be hosting a different event called "Pacific Unity Event," instead of "Contours of the Pacific Culture Show." Though, it will have the same purpose, which is to outreach and serve the Pacific Islander communities both on campus and off campus through educational workshops, cultural performances, and empowering speakers; and

WHEREAS, event would be a space where the community would be able to come together through a presentation of contemporary visual and performing arts. The Pacific Unity Event is not an event just for the Pacific Islander community, but also for allies of the community. Its purpose is to enlighten, inform, and breakdown pre-existing stereotypes; and

WHEREAS, the proposed budget for PAC's Pacific Unity Event is; and
