

ASUC Judicial Council

Direct Judgment

Elections Chair Wren v. Galeon, Duong, Seaty and Winston

On this date, the Twenty Fourth of April, Two Thousand and Seven

By Chair Marisa Cuevas, with whom Assistant Chair Kate Feng, and Associate Justices Stephanie Lam, Josh Templet, Rachel Smith and Sikina Jinnah join

In the case at hand, the Judicial Council was asked accept the plea agreement between Elections Council Chair Wren and the defendants, Daniel Galeon, Danielle Duong, Maurice Seaty, and Roxanne Winston. The defendants were charged with claiming an endorsement without the having the proper disclaimer. The agreement is attached to the end of this document. The Judicial Council has accepted this agreement and issues one censure to each of the defendants for the violation of Title IV, Article 12 Section 6.7.¹

To ECC Jessica Wren:

I, Daniel Galeon, do not wish to contest the charges against me in the case of ECC v. Galeon, Duong, Seaty and Winston. On my Facebook.com campaign group, I posted endorsements with the disclaimer "for identification purposes only". I failed to post the disclaimer, "Titles for Identification Purposes Only", and thus my actions violated Title IV §12.6.7 of the ASUC By-Laws. I accept the punishment of one censure as requested by the plaintiff.

Sincerely,

Daniel Galeon
